

We are already into November and before we know it we will be accelerating into the heady race to Christmas; here is the latest sampling of some treats that are coming up.

There will be a month's break in What's On, with the next edition coming out in February. Let me know what you have coming up if you would like it included in my listing; the closing date for inclusion in February's What's On is SAT 20 January.

3 December (SUN) 2.00pm @ Uniting Church Hall: Merri Singers & Tin Shed Singers Christmas Concert Yet another year draws to a close with a fine afternoon tea preceded by the singing of the Merri and Tin Shed Singers. Not to be missed! Flyer attached.

3 December (SUN) 2.00pm & 4.00pm @ Lighthouse Studio: Warrnambool Symphony Orchestra concert for Children Special guest conductor Stefan Cassomenos has written a new work, Rumpelstiltskin, for this perennial crowd-pleaser concert, and of course Dr Nick the Magician will baffle everyone with his tricks. Flyer attached.

9 December (SAT) 3.00pm @ Thompson Memorial Church, Terang: A Baroque Christmas The Australian Chamber Choir sings a special collection of Christmas music from the late 1400s, Baroque and Beyond. They are always stunning, and you don't have to travel all the way to Melbourne to hear them! Flyer attached.

17 December (SUN) 7pm @ Christ Church: Cantori Christmas Concert Christmas stories narrated by the irrepressible Deon Cameron along with musical treats sung by Cantori. A great way to ease into the Xmas home straight! Flyer attached.

Amendment...7.30 start

28 December (THU) 7.30pm @ St John's Anglican Church, Port Fairy: Port Fairy Messiah with Patrick Burns (conductor extraordinaire) and Craig Doherty (organist extraordinaire), soloists (simply extraordinaire), chamber orchestra (much better than average), and choir (join it and find out!). Flyer attached.

A merry Christmas to all with wishes for a peaceful New Year,
