

We are already into November and before we know it we will be accelerating into the heady race to Christmas; here is the latest sampling of some treats that are coming up.

Note that I got the day and time of the Merri / Tin Shed Singers Xmas concert wrong last time around. They are right this time, but the Uniting Church is in Koroit, not Lava St as the poster says! My mistake...

Let me know what you have coming up if you would like it included in my listing; the closing date for inclusion in December's What's On is SUN 19 November.

And now the details...

4 November (SAT) 7.00-9.30pm @ Anderson Theatre (Brauer College): Warrnambool City Band Spring Concert This is the band's inaugural Spring Concert and will feature the Concert Band | Jazz Band | Brass Band and Reed Ensemble. Whew! Tickets through Trybooking.

5 November (SUN) 10.00am-4.00pm @ Flagstaff Hill: Wreckfest 23 The Wreckfest Group (sounds worrying...) bring us Flagstaff Hill's new and unique festival with many wondrous offerings, including (perhaps unsurprisingly) the Tin Shed Shantymen. More details and tickets through Eventbrite.

11 November (SAT) 4.00-6.30pm @ Lighthouse Theatre: Warrnambool Theatre Company 75th Anniversary Celebrate 75 years of WTC's involvement in entertaining Warrnambool! (flyer attached).

18 November (SAT) 10.00am - 4.00pm @ Christ Church Hammond Fellowship Centre: Messiah Boot Camp with Patrick Burns (conductor extraordinaire) and Craig Doherty (repetiteur extraordinaire). Hone those flabby choruses in time for the Port Fairy Messiah on THU 28 December (flyer attached).

18 November (SAT) evening @ Mozart Hall: Don Cowling and Karien Sinclair This couple of Warrnambool musical gems are performing together here for their home crowd. Great to have them making music in the Mozart Hall!

24-26 November @ Kangarooie (Princetown): Choir Camp Includes three days of workshops, accommodation & food with Mama Kin Spender & friends. Much more detail and bookings at: <https://mamakinspender.love/CHOIR-CAMP>

3 December (SUN) 2.00pm @ Uniting Church Hall: Merri Singers & Tin Shed Singers Christmas Concert Yet another year draws to a close with a fine afternoon tea preceded by the singing of the Merri and Tin Shed Singers. Not to be missed!

3 December (SUN) 2.00pm & 4.00pm @ Lighthouse Studio: Warrnambool Symphony Orchestra concert for Children Special guest conductor Stefan Cassomenos has written a new work for this perennial crowd-pleaser concert, and of course Dr Nick the Magician will baffle everyone with his tricks.

9 December (SAT) 3.00pm @ Thompson Memorial Church, Terang: A Baroque Christmas The Australian Chamber Choir sings a special collection of Christmas music from the late 1400s, Baroque and Beyond. They are always stunning, and you don't have to travel all the way to Melbourne to hear them! (Flyer attached.)

17 December (SUN) 7pm @ Christ Church: Cantori Christmas Concert Christmas stories narrated by the irrepressible Deon Cameron along with musical treats sung by Cantori. A great way to ease into the Xmas home straight!

28 December (THU) 7.30pm @ St John's Anglican Church, Port Fairy: Port Fairy Messiah with Patrick Burns (conductor extraordinaire) and Craig Doherty (organist extraordinaire), soloists (simply extraordinaire), chamber orchestra (much better than average), and choir (join it and find out!)
